Certification Disclosure Information

Spartan College of Aeronautics and Technology does not guarantee third-party certifications. Certification requirements for taking and passing certification examinations are not controlled by the College, but by outside agencies and are subject to change by the agencies without notice to the College. Therefore, the College cannot guarantee that students and graduates will be eligible to take certification examinations, regardless of their eligibility status upon enrollment.

College	Spartan College of Aeronautics and Technology
Location	8820 East Pine St, Tulsa, OK 74115
Program Name	Aviation Maintenance Technology (AMT)
Certification Agency	Federal Aviation Administration (FAA)
Program Approval Required?	Yes, FAA Part 147 (Code of Federal Regulations, Title 14, Chapter 1, Subchapter H, Part 147) approval is required.
Program Approval Active?	Yes. Air Agency Certificate Number: CB9T054R. This certification does not expire.
Federal/National or By State?	Federal. This approval allows Spartan students to sit for the exam(s) in any state if they have completed the required coursework and meet the FAA's eligibility criteria.
Benefits of Certification	Students can choose to take the certification exams based on FAA eligibility requirements. This choice and the results do not impact course or program completion. There are various related positions within the aviation industry that do not require Airframe and Powerplant certification. These positions are limited in scope of work and do not have return to service authority. Return to service authority allows for return to service any component or task completed. For positions that require return to service authority, the person must be a certificated A&P mechanic.
Criminal and Misdemeanor Offenses	It is imperative to understand that employers across industries, the Federal Aviation Administration, and other agencies could deny employment, certification, licensure, or related benefits should you have a record of misdemeanor or felony activity. It is the student's responsibility to research whether any past offenses may prevent or could limit opportunities in the future. Students must keep their record clear of any issues. The College has no control over how past or future offenses impact employability or the student's ability to become certified or licensed.
